Greetings from Our Lady of Victory Catholic School

Thank you for your interest in OLV. The mission of Our Lady of Victory Catholic School is to educate the whole child in a Roman Catholic environment. Our faculty and staff proudly continue this mission thus enabling the child to grow spiritually and intellectually so that each learns to share God-given gifts in service to others.

The OLV School community eagerly anticipates the schools continued excellence of providing an excellent education in a Roman Catholic environment with the commencement of registration for the 2011-2012 academic year.

Enclosed please find the requested school information, tuition rates, PSAS application (tuition assistance), and an application form. Upon receipt of the completed application and the testing fee of $45.00, the school will contact you to schedule a testing date. No admission testing is required for Pre-K3 program.

We will continue to accept new families into our school until the grade level reaches capacity. Education at Our Lady of Victory Catholic School stresses the mental, physical, and social development of the student. Our students are provided with a variety of learning experiences, which occur in an intellectually stimulating environment.

If you have any questions regarding the application process, please feel free to contact us. Additionally I invite you to schedule a tour of the school by calling the school office at (817)924-5123.

Thank you again for your interest in Our Lady of Victory Catholic School.

Peace Be With You,

Ms. Tawilhua A. Mitchell, M.Ed
Principal
